

Bellevue Family YMCA
Financial Policy Agreement

I. Payment Options:

The Bellevue Family YMCA provides the following payment option for your membership:

- Annual-Full payment is made one year in advance via check, cash, Visa or MasterCard. Membership refunds are pro-rated.
- Monthly Bank Draft-Monthly membership dues are automatically withdrawn from your checking or savings account via Electronic Funds Transfer. Bad drafts are ongoing and continue until you provide written notice 14 days prior to the next scheduled draft.
- Recurring Credit Card- Your membership dues are automatically charged on a monthly basis to your Visa or MasterCard. Reoccurring credit card charges are ongoing and continue until you provide written notice 14 days prior to the next scheduled draft.

II. Service Fees:

A $25.00 service fee is charged on all returned checks, automatic bank drafts and credit card charges which are not honored by your financial institution for any reason.

III. Membership Cancellations:

The YMCA must receive 14 days written notice to stop a bank draft or a recurring credit card charge. Membership cards are the property of the YMCA of Greater Seattle and must be returned upon termination of membership. Any outstanding balances will be due at the time of termination. You are liable for any fees that the YMCA may incur in its effort to collect any remaining balance due.

IV. Billing Disputes:

Let the YMCA know about any billing problems or discrepancies within 60 days after they first appear on your account statement. If such billing problems are not brought to the attention of the YMCA within 60 days, you waive your right to dispute such discrepancies.

V. Member Responsibility to Update Personal Information:

It is your responsibility to inform the YMCA of any changes to your name, address, telephone number and payment information. We will notify you in writing of any upcoming changes to your billing prior to making the change. Such notice will be sent to your last known address. Failure to provide the YMCA with current information may result in non-refundable charges.

Satisfaction Guarantee:

If you are not completely satisfied with your membership, notify the Membership Office within the first 30 days and we will refund your joining fee. The joining fee is non-refundable after 30 days. Membership Dues are non Refundable.

By signing below you agree to the terms of the above financial policies.
