Beginning Acting Classes for Youth

D'Vine Artist's is offering youth acting classes for ages 6 to 10 years old. Center Stage is a program where youth can learn the fundamentals of acting, while participating in improvisation, memorization, as well as voice and movement exercises. Youth will develop acting skills and learn what it takes to become a stage performer. Sign up for just one class or become a pro and take all four! No experience is needed just a great imagination and a willingness to learn!

Lights, Camera, Action!

Class Descriptions

Imagination: Youth will learn how to use their imaginations by creating real life situations under imaginary circumstances. They will be able to bring their imaginations to life through a series of games and activities.
November 3rd

Improv: Youth will learn the fundamentals of improv by playing a series of theatre games. They will practice acting, singing, reacting, and creating in the moment responses to their environment.
November 10th

Character: Youth will learn how to build and bring to life characters. Through animal work and character observation they will discover how to make a role their own!
November 17th

Scene: Youth will gain acting skills by participating in a variety of scene based activities. They will work with partners, in groups, memorize dialogue and experience their first stage performance.
November 24th
