

2021 YMCA of Greater Seattle Social Impact Center's Staff Disclosure Statement

This disclosure statement covers behavioral health services that includes crisis outreach and outpatient behavioral health services.

Crisis Outreach Services:

Staff provide individual and group therapy with specific focus on a variety of populations, such as: Substance Use Disorders, Individual, Couples and Family Therapy and Peer Counseling. Staff use various methods of therapy, which may include a combination of Cognitive Behavioral, Existential, Mindfulness, Motivational Interviewing, Narrative, Person-Centered, and Trauma-Focused therapies. Treatment is individualized depending on client needs.

Outpatient Behavioral Health Services:

Staff provide individual and group therapy with specific focus on a variety of populations, such as: Substance Use Disorders, Individual, Couples and Family Therapy and Peer Counseling. Staff use various methods of therapy, which may include a combination of Cognitive Behavioral, Existential, Mindfulness, Motivational Interviewing, Narrative, Person-Centered, and Trauma-Focused therapies. Treatment is individualized depending on client needs.

Your billing information, including each treatment session, advance payments and refunds, is outlined in the financial form presented at the time of intake and will be updated anytime there are changes to your income or insurance. You have the right to refuse treatment and the right to choose a practitioner and treatment modality which best suit your needs.

Standard for Everyone:

The most accurate version of this disclosure statement is sent to your Client Portal at the time of your initial assessment. The most current one is available upon request, to be sent to your client portal. Additionally, you may request this document at a Y Social Impact Center location in the behavioral health office lobby.
